

COMPENSATION EXPERTS

It's FREE to ask us about your rights

Have you been injured while working?

Your claim will be covered by your employer's insurance. This includes if you have developed a psychological condition because of work.

Workers' compensation entitlements include:

- Payment to cover your wages while you're unable to work
- Your medical and treatment expenses

You might also be entitled to a lump sum payment for impairment and damages. These benefits are paid by an insurance company, not your employer.

If your claim is not successful, you don't pay.

Motor Vehicle Accident

Green slip insurance covers the payment of compensation if you are injured in a road accident.

If you or a relative has been injured in a road accident or an accident involving a vehicle, you may be entitled to compensation for:

- payments to cover of wages
- Medical and treatment expenses
- Pain and suffering

Strict time limits apply to these claims. It is important that you contact us immediately to discuss your rights.

Public Place Injury

Injured in a public place? This could include:

- Shopping centres
- School grounds
- Rental properties
- During sporting activities
- Dog attacks
- Physical and sexual assault
- Due to defective products

The public liability insurer may be required to cover your medical expenses, lost income and pain and suffering.

Strict time limits apply to these claims. It is important that you contact us immediately to discuss your rights.

Dust Exposure

Exposure to asbestos, silica and other types of dust may cause disease later in life.

If you have developed a disease due to your exposure to dust, you may be eligible to claim for compensation.
